

PROPOSALS
 FOR PUBLISHING, BY SUBSCRIPTION,
T H E L I F E
 OF
GENERAL ANDREW JACKSON.

AMOS KENDALL proposes to publish in fifteen or more Numbers, a Life of General ANDREW JACKSON, embracing the substance of all that has heretofore appeared in print in connection with the services of this distinguished man, together with many interesting incidents not noticed by his former biographers, and a complete history of his administration, concluding with an account of the manner in which, retired from the bustle of the world, he is quietly preparing to bid adieu to the scene of his glory.

This task has been undertaken with the approbation of General JACKSON himself, who has kindly put into the Author's hands his books and papers, public and private, and on obscure points favored him with his own recollections. With these materials, with the works already published, and with the contributions of facts and papers by many of the General's associates in civil and military life, aided by his own knowledge of events occurring within the last twenty years, the Author hopes to produce a Work worthy of the confidence and patronage of the American people.

The numbers will be printed in large type on excellent paper, averaging 40 pages each, with neat covers, the first issued in May next and the others monthly thereafter, unless delayed by sickness or other unavoidable causes. The work will be illustrated with engravings or prints averaging two to a number, embracing likenesses of the General and some of his most distinguished co-actors, drawings of his battle-grounds in the Creek nation and at New Orleans, and some of the most striking scenes of his eventful life. It will be so arranged and paged, that when completed the covers may be taken off and the whole bound up into a neat book.

Price twenty five cents a number ; or ONE DOLLAR for five numbers, or THREE DOLLARS for the whole work, however much it may exceed fifteen numbers, always paid in advance and free of postage to the author.

Distant Bank notes will be received for what they are worth here or in New York.

To persons voluntarily acting as Agents, a liberal commission will be allowed ; but the Author will not be responsible for any Agents not specially authorized.

The first Number will embrace the General's early life and a variety of revolutionary adventures and incidents not heretofore published. It will be illustrated by a first rate likeness of the General engraved on steel, and a print exhibiting him when a stripling, saving from massacre a small party of men and boys, himself included, by attacking a band of about one hundred tories who were rushing upon them in the night.

Those who intend to patronize the Work, are requested to forward their names and such advance as they may think proper by the first of May next.
